

Who is God - Part 7 - God is Omniscient

- I. God is Omniscient
- A. Definition – God is all-knowing – There is _____ God does not _____
- B. God knows _____ (Matt. 11:27; John 10:15; 1 Cor. 2:11)
Since they know each other perfectly:
1. They have perfect _____ with other
 2. They _____ perfectly and are able to fulfill their _____
- C. God knows _____ (Ps. 139:1-6)
1. God knows us better than we know _____
(Ps. 139:1–6)
 2. God knows our _____
- D. God knows everything, accurately, _____ the time
(Ps 147:5)
1. God has never needed any _____
 - a. God never _____ more knowledge
 - b. God never _____ any knowledge
 - c. God is not an _____ in one area but an _____ in all areas
 2. God knows smallest _____
(Ps. 147:4; Matt. 10:29-30) (God knows all the details of our life, the _____ and _____ - Prov. 5:21)
 3. God has known everything _____ the creation of the world (Isa. 46:8–10)
- II. Our respond to God's Omniscience
- A. It should transform our _____
- B. It should give us comfort because God never _____ anything including us
- C. It should give us comfort because God knows the truth about us even when others _____ us or don't _____ us.
- D. It should _____ us because God knows the depths of our heart
- E. It should comfort us to know that despite God knowing our sin,
He still _____ us
- F. It should give us the _____ to follow Him, His Word, and His Will

III. Questions to Ponder

- A. Do you _____ God's answers to your prayers?
- B. Do you appreciate God knowing the _____ of your Heart?
- C. Do you appreciate that no matter what God _____ you?