

The Greatness of God

Job's reply to Zophar (Job 12–13:19)

- I. Job rebukes his friends (Job 12:1–12).
- Job _____ commends their wisdom (Job 12:1-2)
 - You are no _____ than me (Job 12:3)
 - I suffer despite my _____ (Job 12:4-6)
 - _____ as well as the ancients support my argument (Job 12:7-10)
 - If you _____, you would agree with me, nature, and the ancients (Job 12:11-12)
- II. Job reveals the sovereignty of God (Job 12:13-25)
- God does as he _____ (Job 12:13a)
 - God does it according to His _____ and many times only He _____ (Job 12:13-25)
 - God's sovereignty is seen in his control of _____ (Job 12:14-15)
 - God's sovereignty is seen in His control over mankind
 - He rules over the _____ of mankind (Job 12:16)
 - He _____ those in authority
 - God's sovereignty is seen in His _____ (Job 12:22-25)
- III. Job requests three things from his friends (13:1-19)
- Stop trying to _____ !!! (Job 13:1-4)
 - You have _____ new to tell me (Job 13:1-2)
 - I wish to plead my case with God not _____ (Job 13:3)
 - It is a _____ of _____ talking with a group of people who smear the truth with lies (Job 13:4)
 - Be _____ and _____ (Job 13:5-12)
 - This will show you have true _____ (Job 13:5-6)
 - This will stop you from being _____ to God (Job 13:7-11)
 - Your words are _____ (Job 13:12)
 - Let me _____ my _____ despite the possible consequences (Job 13:13-19)

Job's plea to God (Job 13:20-28)

- I. Job's requests two things from God (Job 13:20–28)
- Give me a _____ trial (Job 13:21)
 - Call me to _____ (Job 13:22-28)

C. Job's mood changes from confidence to _____ (Job 13:28)

- II. Job's Lament to God (Job 14)
- Job's view of life (Job 14:1-6)
 - Life is short and full of _____ (Job 14:1-2)
 - We are constantly under Your (God's) _____, and we do not measure up to your standards (Job 14:3-4)
 - You (God) have _____ our days (Job 14:5)
 - You (God) are always _____ over us (Job 14:6)
 - Death is _____ until... (Job 14:7-12) the _____ are no more
 - Job has no _____ in this life (Job 14:18-22)
 - His body is slowly and painfully _____ removing all hope (Job 14:18-19)
 - His body will return to _____ (Job 14:20)
 - His soul _____ (Job 14:21-22)
 - Job has a future _____ (Job 14:13-17)
 - Job wants to be hidden in Sheol until God _____ subsides (Job 14:13)
 - Job anticipates his future _____ when he will be made new (Job 14:14-17)

Questions to Ponder

- Do you believe in the _____ of God?
- Do you trust God's _____?
- Are you taking full advantage of the _____ God has given you?
- Do you know _____ you will spend _____?
- Do you _____ like a _____ of God?