

Job's Closing Argument (Job 29-31)

Job reflects on past _____ (Job 29)

- I. Job reflects on his past _____ with God (Job 29:2-5)
- II. Job reflects on his days as a _____ (Job 29:7-10)
- III. Job reflects on the _____ people had for him (Job 29:11-17)
 - A. Job rescued the _____ and _____
 - B. Job comforted the _____ and cared for the _____
 - C. Job defended the defenseless in court from the _____
- IV. Through everything he did in the past, his _____ cannot be questioned

Job reflects on his current _____ (Job 30)

- I. Job reflects on how people _____ him now
 - A. Fathers and sons _____ Job
 - B. They do not hesitate to _____ on Job
- II. Job reflects on his current relationship with _____ (Job 30:20-23)
- III. Job reflects on his current _____ (Job 30:30-31)
- IV. Through all his current suffering, his _____ cannot be questioned

Job defends his _____ (Job 31)

- I. I have been free from _____ (Job 31:1-2)
- II. I have been _____ (Job 31:5-6)
- III. I have committed no _____ (Job 31:9-11)
- IV. I have treated my servants _____ (Job 31:13-15)
- V. I have shown compassion to those in _____ (Job 31:16-21)
- VI. I have had no _____ of money (Job 31:24-25)
- V. I have not committed _____ (Job 31:26-28)
- VI. I have not mistreated my _____ (Job 31:29-30)
- VII. I have shown hospitality to family and _____ (Job 31:31-32)
- VIII. I have not tried to _____ my _____ (Job 31:33-34)
- IX. Job's final appeal for God to _____ him (Job 31:35-37)

Questions to Ponder

- I. Do you _____ in difficult times by remembering God's past blessings?
- II. Do God's blessing lead us to _____?
- III. Are we _____ by our trials?
- IV. How much is your _____?
- V. Is your integrity _____?